ABOUT THE BIBLE

The original writings of the Bible had no divisions between chapters and verses. Stephen Langton, an Archbishop of Canterbury, created the modern chapter divisions in 1227. And Robert Estienne, a French printer, developed the verse numbering system in 1551, the one used in modern Bibles today. So, when you turn to Romans 3:23, you can thank these two guys.

We are glad you are worshiping with us. Our desire is to genuinely follow Jesus and impact our community with the goodness of God.
