The book of Esther is one of two books in the Bible that does not mention the name of God (the other is the Song of Solomon). This is strange for a book that is in the Bible. Sometimes God seems to be silent. We might even think that He does not care about us. But nothing could be further from the truth. The writer of the book of Esther probably wanted readers to realize that God is always working even if He isn't mentioned. Although we cannot see God, He is always doing things in the world and working through people like Esther. No one can stop His plans. Esther shows us this!

We are glad you are worshiping with us. Our desire is to genuinely follow Jesus and impact our community with the goodness of God.
