"A Resurrection People – If It Was New in the Old, How Much More is it New in the New?"

Isaiah 43:14-21; Luke 5:33-39

With the Easter season continuing until Pentecost, we will reflect on the reality of the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead and why and how we can live as
"resurrection people."

The LORD is with me; I will not be afraid.
What can mere mortals do to me?

Psalms 118:6

Join us on Wednesday nights in Cook
Hall from 6:30 – 7:30 pm

The Book of Proverbs teaches that we must respect God. This is the most important lesson about wisdom. The Book of Proverbs begins with Solomon's advice to his son. In Proverbs chapters 1-9, Solomon explains the choice between wise behavior and foolish behavior. Good people are wise because they respect God. But evil people are fools. God will punish evil people. So, Solomon advised his son to study wisdom, as we should as well. Wisdom is lacking in our culture today and it would do everyone well to revisit the Biblical wisdom of Proverbs

We are glad you are worshipping with us. Our desire is to genuinely follow Jesus and impact our community with the goodness of God.

Join us for our first ever SUNDAY SUPPER, Sunday, May 31 at 5:00 pm in Cook Hall. The theme for the potluck this month is "childhood favorites", so bring the favorite meal you had as a child (for example, mac n' cheese, or fish sticks, or pizza, or chicken nuggets, etc) and then stay for fellowship and board games.
