“Who Are You? – I Am Free”

John 8:31-36; Romans 8:1-2; Galatians 5:1, 13a;
II Corinthians 3:17

Our culture is in a complete identity crises. We don't know who we are. We don't know what we believe. We don't know who to believe. This lack of identity is a direct result of not knowing Who we belong to and the ideals and promises that come from knowing God. For God is not the author of confusion (see I Corinthians 14:33) but He brings peace and clarity. This series will provide the Biblical foundation for finding our identity in the Lord Jesus Christ and in His perfect purposes.

“Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God’s grace in its various forms.”
(I Peter 4:10)

Join us on Wednesday nights in Cook Hall from 6:30 – 7:30 pm

Luke's Gospel (good news) is a record, in order, of the main events in Jesus' life. Its author was Luke, who was a doctor. Luke is the third Gospel after Matthew and Mark. Luke probably did not belong to the Jewish people. His book shows that Jesus cared about everyone. Jesus cured many ill people. Jesus cared about women (for example, Luke 7:11-17). Jesus allowed children to come to him (Luke 18:15-17). And Jesus cared about poor people (Luke 21:1-4). Luke went on to explain what happened after Jesus ascended to heaven and the birth of the church in his other book called Acts

We are glad you are worshiping with us. Our desire is to genuinely follow Jesus and impact our community with the goodness of God.
